THE SUPREME COURT,

In the Case of the Southern Pacific Railroad Company vs. the United States, Decides Against the Railroad Company.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19 .- The United States supreme court Monday rendered an opinion against the railroad company in the case of the Southern Pacific Railroad company vs. the United States brought here from the circuit court for the ninth circuit. The case involved about 700,000 acres of land in southern California and grew out of the fact that the forfeited land grant of the Atlantic & Pacific Railroad company was overlapped to some extent by lands claimed under government grant by the Southern Pacific. The Atlantic and Pacific Railroad Co., originally claimed the lands in controversy and its original maps of location along the line of these lands were accepted by the land office but congress declared the lands for-feited and thereupon the Southern Pacific, whose grant overlapped that of the Atlantic and Pacific thereupon set up title to the lands. The circuit court, however, decided against the Southern Pacific and the supreme court Monday affirmed that decision so far as concerns the railway company but remanded to the lower court for decision the cases of about 200 persons who had purchased part of the lands from the railroad company.

The supreme court Monday advanced the argument of the Durrant murder case, brought here from San Francisco and set it for hearing November 15.

There Are 1,164 Railway Postal Lines, Manned by 7,854 Clerks.

There Are 42 Steamboat Lines With 57 Clerks-Grand Total of Miles Traveled by All Classes of Service 282,830,031 Pneumatic Tube Mail Service.

Washington, Oct. 18 .- An abstract of the annual report of the general superintendent of the railway mail serv-

At the close of the year there were 1,164 railway post office lines, manned by 6,854 clerks; 33 electric and cable lines, with 102 clerks; 42 steamboat lines, with 57 clerks, making total number of lines 1,239, and total number of clerks 7,013. In addition to these there were 311 clerks assigned to duty at important junctions and depots, and 238 detailed to clerical duty in the various offices of the service, making a grand total of 7,562 clerks.

The miles of railroad covered by railway post office car service was 154,225; of electric and cable, 303, and of steamboat lines, 7,459. The grand total of miles traveled of all classes of service was 282,830,031. There were 654 whole cars in use and 173 in reserve, and 2,026 apartments in cars in use and 540 in re-

The number of pieces of all classes of mail matter distributed on the cars during the year was 11,571,540,680, exclusive of registered matter and city mail. Of registered matter there were 16,256,663 pieces in all. The amount of city mail distributed for stations and carriers during the year the previous year was 3,7 per cent. A comparative table covering a period of 10 years shows that there has been an increase in the amount of mail beautiful and they were frank to say that they could not determine the cause, or prescribe a remedy to aid the afflicted child.

But what a change now in the aggregated 462,469,640 pieces. The inof 77.2 per cent and increase in the working force of 48.6 per cent.

There were 559 casualties during the year, in which 14 clerks lost their lives, 33 were seriously and 75 slightly injured. This is a larger number of casualties and fatalities than has occurred during any previous year since the organization of the service. The passage of a bill for the relief of the families of clerks killed in the line of duty; of clerks injured and unfitted for service permanently, or temporarily, and for the retirement on partial pay of clerks who have served so long as to be unfitted for service, has again been urged.

The annual report of W. S. Shallenberger, second assistant postmaster general made public Sunday night gives an interesting review of the principal developments in the entire postal transportation service of the United States and connecting foreign mails. It shows an aggregate of appropriations for this large part of the postal service for the current year of $51,041,-238; the probable deficiency is $500,-000, making the estimated expenditures this year $51,541,238. This will be $1,623,045, or three and one quarter per cent. more than for the fiscal year just closed. The estimate for the fiscal year, 1899, is $53,337,260, which is $1,796,021 more than the estimated expenditure for the current year. The annual rate for the inland mail service in the year just closed was $49,862,074, and for foreign mail service $1,791,170, after deducting $258,029 for intermediary at 50 cents a hox or six boxes (never in loose bulk) tures this year $51,541,238. This will deducting $258,029 for intermediary service to foreign countries. Last year there was only one pneumatic postal tube in operation in the country, that in Philadelphia. Since then four more contracts have been executed in Philadelphia, New York, Boston and between New York and Boston and between New York and Brooklyn.

Concerning this new postal feature Gen. Shallenberger reports: "It is quite possible to carry second, third and fourth class matter as well as first, when it can be made profitable. Extensions to stations several miles distant from the main office, eventhally will save clerical force as ually, will save clerical force as well as expedite delivery in distant eities from 12 to 24 hours. WINDSOR, N. S.,

Almost Completely Destroyed by Fire-Nearly Four Hundred Buildings Burned-Loss $3,000,000.

HALIFAX, N. S., Oct. 18 .- Historic Windsor, one of the most beautiful towns in the province, was devastated by fire Sunday morning. For six hours, beginning shortly before 8 a.m., the fire, fanned by a violent northwest gale, raged so fiercely that the local fire department was absolutely helpless to cope with it and within half an hour after is discovery the mayor began to call for outside assistmayor began to call for outside assistance. Long before noon the town had been eaten up almost completely, the area covered by the flames being nearly a mile square, and of the four hundred or more buildings that occupy the section, barely half a dozen scorched structures remain. Among the buildings that escaped are the Windsor cotton factory, King's college, the Anglican church, the Edgehill School for Girls and the Buffrin hotel. The total loss is estimated roughly at $3,000,000. While a number of the heaviest losers are partially insured and some of them pretty well covered, the total insurance is calculated to be not more than half a million.

A CHILD'S RECOVERY

From Paralysis and Six Years of Convulsions.

Little Fannie Adams, of Umatilla, Cured of a Dreadful Malady-A Cure of Unusual Interest-A Reporter Investigates.

From the Lake Region, Eustis, Fla. From the Lake Region, Eustis, Fla.

For some time past the Lake Region has been receiving reports from Umatilla, Fla., of an almost miraculous ture that had been effected in the case of Fannie Adams, a daughter of A. J. Adams, of that place, and last Saturday a representative of this paper made a trip to Umatilla for the purpose of determining the authenticity of the same.

The family live a short distance from the village, where it was found that the people were cognizant of the cure which had been effected, and were rejoicing with the family in their new found happiness. The father, A. J. Adams, is a hard-working honest farmer from east Tennessee, and the family came to Florida four years ago in the hope that a change of climate would be of benefit to their afflicted child. Much of their earnings have gone for doctors' bills, whose services proved unavailing. The representative was greeted by Mrs. Adams, from whom he gained the story of her great trial.

tive was greeted by Mrs. Adams, from whom he gained the story of her great trial.

Fannie, the youngest child, was born in east Tennessee, and was seven years old on the third day of February, 1897. When ten months old she was stricken with paralysis, which affected the entire left side. This stroke of paralysis was followed by convulsions, and from the time little Fannie was ten months old until February, 1897, there was not a single day or a night that she did not have spasms of the most distressing nature. Not a single convulsion, but always three or four, and sometimes as high as ten in one day.

ways three or four, and sometimes as high as ten in one day.

The family was all broken down with care, and Mrs. Adams states that for one year she did not go into her kitchen to superintend her household work. All the fingers of the right hand of the little girl are enlarged and misshapen, caused by her biting them during the fearful suffering. The case bafiled the skill of the best physicians, and they were frank to say that they could nct determine the cause, or prescribe a remedy to aid the afflicted child.

But what a change now in that household; for little Fannie has recently been released from her six years of agony, which brings the light of happiness to the faces of the parents. In January, this year, Mrs. Adams, who had purchased some of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People for her fourteen year old daughter, determined to try their effect upon little Fannie. After three or four doses, she noted an improvement and she then told the father what she had done. He at once went to the village and bought another box, and up to this time six boxes have been used. The first pills, Mrs. Adams states, were given in January, the latter part, and certainly not earlier than the fifteenth or twentieth, and the child had her last convulsion on February 3d, nearly three months ago. Her general condition has improved in every way, and it was not a month after the first pills were taken when she began to walk without assistance. The pills were bought at the drug store of Dr. Shelton, in Umatilla. In answer to the question, did he, to his personal knowledge, know that the remedy had benefited Fannie Adams, as was stated by her parents, the doctor said that he was a regular practicing physician, and as such was loth to recommend any proprietary medi-parents, the doctor said that he was a regular practicing physician, and as such was loth to recommend any proprietary medicine, but still he was ready to do justice to all men, and he did know that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People had benefited Fannie Adams, and also volunteered the information that he knew of other children in the village who had been benefited by their use.

"But he seems to have plenty of money."

"That's another thing I don't like. I have cut off his allowance, yet he lives well and never enters a complaint. Last spring I thought I would have to put up the office blinds for want of ready cast. My collaterals were not available and creditors were pushing me. The boy walked into the office one afternoon when I was in the throes of despair, said: "Things lookin' blue, governor?' laid down a certified check for $20,000 and walked out. I owe him that yet, but am holding it back till I can see that he needs it. When I gave him money to buy wheat and told him how the market was liable to go, he ignored my advice and bought millions of eggs; right in the midst of hot weather, mind you. On learning where they were stored I notified the health department and requested some of those in the vicinity to bring proceedings when the nuissance asserted itself. I learned incidentally afterward that he had a patent process for preserving eggs and cleared up a big pot of innoney. Wheat hadn't gone the way I predicted, but it was his business to do as I told him. Recently he made $15,000 at some shooting game. He Raised the Wind.

He Raised the Wind.

The ship had lain becalmed in a tropical sea for three days. Not a breath of air stirred the mirror-like surface of the sea or the limp sails that hung from the yards like drapery carved in stone. The captain resolved to wait no longer. He piped up all hands on deck, and requested the passengers to also come forward. "I must ask all of you," he said, "to give me every match you have." Wonderingly the passengers and crew obeyed. The captain carefully arranged the matches in his hand as each man handed him his store, until all had been collected. Then he threw them all overboard but one, drew a cigar from his pocket, and, striking the solitary match on the mainmast, endeavored to light it. In an instant a furious gale swept over the deck, extinguished the match, and filled the sails, and the good ship Mary Ann sped through the waves on her course.—Philadelphia Inquirer.
